Table of Contents

Acknowledgments ........................................................................................................ ix

Part One: Theoretical Foundations

1. Dancing with the Muses: An Cultural-historical Approach
   To Play, Meaning Making and Creativity............................................................... 3
   Vera John-Steiner, M. Cathrene Connery, and Ana Marjanovic-Shane

2. The Historical Significance of Vygotsky’s Psychology of Art............................ 33
   M. Cathrene Connery

3. Without Creating ZPDs There Is No Creativity................................................. 33
   Lois Holzman

4. Agentive Creativity in All of Us:
   An Egalitarian Perspective from a Transformative Activist Stance................. 33
   Anna Stetsenko

Part Two: Domains of Artistic Expression

5. Where is the Body?
   Understanding Children’s First Signs and Representations from their
   Point of View........................................................................................................ 33
   Biljana C. Fredriksen

6. Crossing Scripts and Swapping Riffs:
   Preschoolers Make Musical Meaning................................................................ 33
   Patricia St. John
7. Constructing the Ensemble:
   Negotiating Life with(in) Play.................................................................33
   Artin Göncü

8. The Social Construction of a Visual Language:
   On Becoming a Painter...........................................................................33
   M. Cathrene Connery

9. Dance Dialogues: Creating and Teaching
   in the Zone of Proximal Development................................................333
   Barry Oreck and Jessica Nicoll

10. The Inscription of Self in Graphic Texts in School .........................333
    Peter Smagorinsky

11. Commitment and Creativity: Transforming Experience into Art........333
    Seana Moran

   Part Three: Connections Between Creative Expression,
   Learning, and Development

    Application of Vygotsky’s Method of Literary Analysis to Playworlds......333
    Beth Ferholt

13. Keeping Ideas and Language in Play:
    Teaching Drawing, Writing, and Aesthetics in Secondary Literacy
    Class........................................................................................................333
    Michelle Zoss

14. From Yes and No to Me and You:
    A Playful Change in Relationships and Meanings...............................333
    Ana Manjanovic-Shane

15. New Frontiers for Vygotsky’s Theory of Creativity:
    Neuropsychological Systems of Cultural Creativity.............................333
    Larry and Francine Smolucha
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>16.</td>
<td>Creating Developmental Moments:</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Teaching and Learning as Creative Activities</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Carrie Lobman</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.</td>
<td>A Cultural-historical Approach to Creative Education</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ana Marjanovic–Shane, M. Cathrene Connery, &amp; Vera John Steiner</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Notes: 333
Contributors: 333
Index: 333